

6008 Class Rank

Rank in class is based on the GPA and compares the student's relative rank with all other students in his/her class. Scholastic class rank is figured at the end of each semester for each student in high school. The student's final class standing and grade point average is determined after eight semester of high school attendance.

In attempt to recognize those courses that are most academically challenging, grades for certain courses will be weighted.

Adopted on: December 20, 2010

Reviewed on: November 16, 2015