Week of August 15th - 16th

Mission Statement

The mission of Central City Public Schools is to educate, challenge, and prepare students with life long skills for the world around them.

This week and next week we are focusing on rules and procedures throughout the day. Once we begin digging into subject content, there will be a list of what we are focusing on in this area.

If you have questions, please contact your classroom teacher. Let's have a great year!!
