Week of March 27-31

Important Information:

Rules are important! Our three school rules are be safe, be respectful, and be responsible. These rules have been broken numerous times this week. We have seen unsafe behaviors inside and outside the classroom. We have also seen a number of disrespectful things at recess. We need to be more responsible in first grade.

1st grade teachers and helpers are keeping a close eye to watch for the three school rules and to make sure we have EVERYONE following them. Please follow up at home to inform the safe, respectful, and responsible rules at home and at school.

What we worked on:

Reading: Students are working at their independent level and "walk to read" everyday.

Math: We have started working on halves and quarters. We are working on finding the whole and parts of a shape.

Science: We are working on our neighborhood Where We Live unit in Social Studies.

Language: We took a test on verbs and adjectives in sentences. Editing punctuation and correct grammar was also on the test.
